You are a little seed, just planted in the ground.

Adapted from Georgia Organics
You are a little seed, just planted in the ground.

Adapted from Georgia Organics
With warmth and water, you grow...
... and grow.
Then your stem comes up out of the ground.
Your roots dig down into the earth as your leaves stretch up towards the sun.
With the soil holding you tight and providing you with nutrients, you stand strong.
With warmth and water, you grow...
... and grow.
Then your stem comes up out of the ground.
Your roots dig down into the earth as your leaves stretch up towards the sun.
With the soil holding you tight and providing you with nutrients, you stand strong.